Understanding Touching the Void Before diving into question types lets briefly contextualize Joe Simpsons gripping narrative Touching the Void isnt just a story of survival its a masterclass in descriptive language emotional intensity and human resilience Understanding the key themes survival friendship perseverance the power of the human will is crucial to effectively answering exam questions Think about the contrasting environments the brutal unforgiving mountain versus the vulnerable fragile human body and the evolving relationship between Simpson and his climbing partner Simon Yates

Visual Imagine a stark snowcovered mountain peak The wind howls the sky is a bruised purple Now picture Simpson alone injured clinging to life in a crevasse This is the visceral imagery that pervades the text

Common Question Types and How to Tackle Them The Edexcel IGCSE English Language paper typically presents questions focusing on Language Analysis These questions explore how the writer uses language techniques metaphors similes personification imagery etc to create specific effects They often ask you to analyze rather than simply identify these techniques

Structure and Organisation Here youll examine how the writer structures the text to build suspense reveal information gradually or create a particular impact on the reader Consider the use of paragraphs sentence length and chronological order or lack thereof

Writers Purpose and Audience These questions require you to understand the writers intention to inform persuade entertain etc and how they tailor their writing to engage a specific audience

2 Comparing and Contrasting Some questions might ask you to compare the writers style in different sections of the extract or compare Touching the Void with another text

Howto Section Answering Language Analysis Questions Lets say a question asks Analyse how Simpson uses language to describe his physical and emotional state after falling into the crevasse

Step 1 Identify Key Quotations Select powerful phrases that vividly portray his physical and emotional state For example My leg was screaming a searing pain shot up my leg despair clawed at me

Step 2 Analyse the Language Techniques

My leg was screaming Personification the leg is given human qualities emphasizing the intensity of the pain a searing pain shot up my leg Imagery the vivid verb searing and the dynamic imagery create a sense of intense sharp pain despair clawed at me Personification again despair is given the active role of attacking him suggesting its overwhelming nature Step 3 Explain the Effect Explain how these techniques impact the reader For example The personification of his leg screaming emphasizes the unbearable pain he endures drawing the reader into his suffering The vivid imagery of searing pain creates a powerful sensory experience for the reader making the pain feel visceral and real

Section Answering Structure and Organisation Questions A question might ask How does Simpson structure his account to build suspense and maintain the readers interest Step 1 Identify Structural Features Look at the use of short sentences to create tension the gradual revelation of information flashbacks or the use of cliffhangers at the end of paragraphs Step 2 Explain the Effect of Analyze how these features contribute to building suspense For example Simpsons use of short sharp sentences in the description of his fall into the crevasse creates a sense of immediacy and panic The gradual revelation of his injuries builds suspense keeping the reader in a state of anticipation Visual Imagine a graph showing the increasing tension throughout a section of the text correlating with the use of short sentences and dramatic descriptions 3 Example Answer incorporating multiple question types Lets consider a hypothetical question Analyse how Simpson uses language and structure to portray his feelings of isolation and despair after severing the rope Example Answer Simpsons account of being alone after severing the rope powerfully conveys his feelings of isolation and despair through a masterful combination of language and structure He uses stark imagery such as the silence was absolute to highlight the emptiness surrounding him The adjective absolute intensifies the feeling of utter loneliness a stark contrast to the previous camaraderie with Yates Further emphasizing this isolation Simpson employs short fragmented sentences mirroring the fractured state of his own emotional and physical being For example Alone Darkness Cold This abrupt staccato style reflects his mental fragmentation and the overwhelming nature of his situation Structurally the placement of this section after the intense drama of the ropecutting intensifies the impact of his isolation The reader is left to share in his desolation the silence reflecting the crushing weight of his predicament By skillfully employing language and structure Simpson evokes a profound sense of despair and loneliness making the reader deeply empathize with his plight

Summary of Key Points Understand the themes Survival friendship human resilience the power of the human will Identify language techniques Metaphors similes personification imagery etc Analyze the structure Sentence length paragraphing chronological order Explain the writers purpose and audience Why did Simpson write this Who is he addressing Practice answering different question types Use past papers and model answers Frequently Asked Questions FAQs 1 How many quotations should I use in an answer Aim for 35
