the revised and updated 2nd edition of handbook of contemporary preaching is a comprehensive textbook on preaching and teaching the bible pastors will be better equipped after reading and learning from some of the most notable scholars and pastors on the topic of preaching the old testament prophets are a neglected treasury of biblical examples for pastoral preaching too often the prophets are misunderstood as focusing on future or social justice issues this book shows that the prophets are essentially preachers very good ones whom we must learn from by comparing recent rhetorical analysis of the prophets to some of the best of current preaching literature this book shows that the prophets preached the way that we ought to preach it will help you to hear the prophets the same way that a pastor benefits from listening to a seasoned and exceptionally gifted preacher we can benefit not only from what the prophets say but how they say it by seeing how the prophets grab and keep their listeners how they enhance clarity and relevancy how they make truth come alive and how they persevere in their ministry you too can learn to preach like the prophets this volume develops an approach to preaching that brings together two important forces one is process theology and the other is a homiletic of conversation based on mutual critical correlation in this approach the preacher does not unilaterally announce the word of god but is the leader of an exciting conversation involving the biblical text process theology the congregation and voices from the larger world the preacher seeks to help the congregation identify god s invitations towards inclusive well being and to imagine how to respond in ways that are consistent with those invitations that promote inclusive well being the book begins with a crisp and clear summary of the worldview of process theology highlighting its distinctive views on how god operates in the world through invitation and on the interrelationship of all things the work then outlines an approach to biblical exegesis informed by process perspectives and sketches a method for bringing the biblical voice into dialogue with voices from tradition contemporary theology and the congregation and preacher the volume suggests shaping the sermon to honor process theology and conversation the volume concludes by noticing how perspectives from process and conversation help the preacher embody the sermon in engaging ways effective biblical preaching can shape the thought and practice of several generations of christians in this practical book dr demaray explains how any preacher can communicate god s word more effectively in a post christian culture marked by shifting societal trends and technological advancements only a stable foundation can sustain the weight of christian proclamation the word of this salvation in the mouths of christ s ministers meets this challenge through homiletical retrieval within the baptist tradition following the model of historical ressourcement the study ensures continuity with the baptist heritage while fostering renewal in contemporary preaching the book centers on benjamin keach an early english particular baptist whose sermons and writings provide the primary sources for constructing a systematic theology of preaching by situating keach within his historical context his theology of preaching can provide a theo homiletical framework for contemporary expressions of baptist preaching this theology comprises six interconnected elements epiphanical as its basis expositional as its object experiential as its subject effectual as its means ecclesial as its context and evangelical as its goal each element is carefully derived from keach s published works and evaluated against timeless homiletical questions the purpose is to equip baptist preachers and teachers with a theologically coherent historically grounded framework that bridges past convictions with present practice enabling faithful and transformative proclamation in today s context preaching today all too often tragically misses the point we ve all heard sermons that sound more like a lecture filling the head but not the heart and we ve all heard sermons tailored to produce an emotional experience filling the heart but not the head but biblical preaching both informs minds and engages hearts giving it the power to transform lives by the spirit s grace biblical preaching brings truth home from the heart of the preacher to the heart of the hearer joel beeke a pastor and professor of preaching with over four decades of experience explores the fundamental principles of reformed experiential preaching examining sermons by preachers from the past and bridging the historical gap by showing pastors what the preaching of god s life transforming truth looks like today
