nigeria once a hopelessly beleaguered society has risen from the ashes and is a spiritually revived nation one of the main contributors to this book states it is safe to say that the church and effectual prayers have kept our nation from complete anarchy and genocide the impact of christianity is evident wherever you go if you look a little deeper listen a little closer you will see and hear the myriad changes that are subtly transforming our nation into a nation that truly fears the lord the miraculous is evident in the church of nigeria out of africa offers the testimony of numerous nigerian pastors who are making a difference for god all over the world learn from churches who are experiencing a radical move of god

this book draws upon case studies of the congolese christian diaspora in the uk and us and an ethnography of religious urbanization in the democratic republic of congo drc to explore the making of religious spaces and moral landscapes in an era of globalization religion is a key aspect of the community social and political life of congolese migrants many of whom have to address the predicaments of displacement relocation and the status of being a minority within a minority as francophone black african migrants in english speaking countries the book demonstrates the role of religion in the production of moral worlds and the ways in which for congolese christians this process both results from and facilitates a process of regrounding in the midst of ambivalent urban environments through a multi sited ethnography the book also examines the impact of transnational religious practices on development and city making in the homeland in a context of increasing informalization and infrastructural deficit drawing on extensive ethnographic data david garbin captures the nuances of a complex and changing social political and religious landscape for congolese migrants relying on the construction of moral worlds and revealing the role of a range of connections but also disconnections between diaspora and homeland across multiple scales an essential resource for scholars and researchers interested in the intersections of religion migration and urbanization in both global north and global south contexts pentecostalism is a movement within christianity placing special emphasis on a believer s personal encounter with god through the holy spirit it is arguably the world s fastest growing form of religion while exact figures are uncertain there may now be as many as 500 million pentecostals closely related to other forms of born again christianity evangelical and charismatic pentecostalism has been described as a religion made to travel from the outset it has been a strong missionary movement and has been oriented towards recruitment and expansion research into this important form of christianity has become more popular of late but the movement s remarkably fast spread is still not well understood in particular its constant worldwide encounters with other religions and beliefs as well as with different forms of christianity have seldom been explored at length this rich and varied book remedies that neglect although its adherents supposedly preach a universal message in practice pentecostalism's global spread has resulted in increasing diversification the volume investigates the consequences of that spread and of the accommodations pentecostal missionaries have to make when faced by pluralism and the challenges posed by ecumenism ranging across every major continent the contributors to the volume make a significant contribution towards a fuller and more complete understanding of this remarkable world faith pentecostalism is topical fast expanding newsworthy and exotic this is the definitive collection by international experts on the movement it is the first book to address pentecostalism's fascinating relationship with other faiths and beliefs the command to preach the gospel in order to win souls and make disciples of them was given by the lord jesus himself in this book soul winning and the making of disciples dr z t fomum reiterates that command with emphasis on the fact that every child of god is called upon to carry out this great commission and anyone who fails to obey is rebelling and courting god's disfavour soul winning goes hand in glove with the making of disciples because it is a chain process those won to him must be made into disciples and taught how to win others and make them into disciples in this whole matter the spirit filled life is a prerequisite for jesus asked the disciples to wait until they were clothed with power from on high but the spirit of god would not fall on the fearful worldly indulgent lovers of ease lovers of pleasure and compromisers all such must repent and get right with god we send this book out with prayer that the lord would be pleased to use it to produce labourers in our generation to carry out the urgent task of soul winning and the making of disciples the first edition of the next christendom has been hailed as a landmark in our understanding of modern christianity in this new and substantially expanded second edition jenkins continues to illuminate the remarkable expansion of christianity in the global south in africa asia and latin america as well as the clash between islam and christianity since september 11 among the major topics covered are the growing schism between northern and southern churches over issues of gender and sexuality immigrant and ethnic churches in north america and a special section on the split within the anglican communion the first in a three book trilogy on the changes besetting modern christianity this award winning book will be welcomed by all of those who have come to recognize philip jenkins as one of our leading commentators on religion and world affairs hanciles does yeoman work in part one synthesizing studies on the impact of globalization revealing that its outcomes will likely not be determined by the euro american heartlands that sparked this movement instead in parts two he shows that migration in general is having an enormous effect on shaping a new world order and in part three mobile faith he advances the case for the migration of christians as carrying within it the seeds of renewal for the whole church and also the potential to reshape church state and religion and culture relations globally this book is an exposition of the significance of the great commission of christ for christian life and how it to be properly obeyed it emphasizes the sovereignty of god as father son and holy spirit over this commission and the rightful place of the church as his people in its fulfilment it addresses the biblical theological and ministerial facets of the commission the core of this commission is being disciples who make disciples for christ by the spirit and the word of god obeying the great commission is not only the focal task of the church but the way the spirit transforms believers to be like christ and grow towards his fullness it exposes many misconceptions and misapplications that have seriously hampered the fulfilment of this commission and how to treat them it shows the principles and the core processes that are required for its proper realization
