a story of the psalms is an interdisciplinary project that is informed especially by synchronic approaches to reading the bible and the work of social scientists and theologians who have studied the contemporary landscape confronting religious communities particularly congregations specifically insights from narrative analysis are used to discern in the book of psalms a story with a plot that is told by multiple voices engaged with one another and with god as they address crucial junctures in israel's life these enduring voices offer guidance to congregations of an emerging church in a post christendom era issn 2397 9607 issue 231 ¶ in this 231st issue of the baba indaba's children's stories series baba indaba narrates the arabian nights tale of the story of the fisherman ¶ plus four more tales from the arabian nights also included in this bumper edition are the story of king yoon n and the sage doob n the story of the husband and the parrot the story of the envious wezeer and the prince and the ghooleh and lastly the story of the young king of the black islands ¶ in the story of the fisherman baba tells how a poor fisherman unexpectedly hauls in the carcass of an ass in his nets even though his catch was worthless he gave praise to god for his ability to work and catch fish he brought the carcass ashore and laid it out to dry thinking the skin may be of value and returned to his fishing on the second cast of his nets he found them to be even heavier than the first still he dragged them ashore on examining the nets he found in it only a large jar full of sand and mud on seeing this his ¶ heart was troubled as he wondered what he and his family were to eat that night he put the jar aside and a third time cast the net and waited till it had sunk and was motionless he then drew it out and found in it a quantity of broken jars and pots upon seeing this he raised his head towards heaven and said o god thou knowest that i cast not my net more than four times and i have now cast it three times then exclaiming in the name of god he cast the net again into the sea and waited till it was still when he attempted to draw it up but could not for it clung to the bottom ¶ he worked away at the nets and found in it a bottle of brass filled with something and having its mouth closed with a stopper of lead bearing the impression of the seal of our lord suleym n at the sight of this the fisherman was rejoiced and said this i will sell in the copper market for it is worth ten pieces of gold he then shook it and found it to be heavy and said i must open it and see what is in it and store it in my bag and then i will sell the bottle in the coppermarket so he took out a knife and picked at the lead until he extracted it from the bottle he then laid the bottle on the ground and shook it that its contents might pour out but there came forth from it nothing but smoke which ascended towards the sky and spread over the face of the earth at which he wondered excessively ¶ after a little while the smoke collected together and was condensed and then became agitated and was converted into an efreet a genie whose head was in the clouds while his feet rested upon the ground his head was like a dome his hands were like winnowing forks and his legs like masts his mouth resembled a cavern his teeth were like stones his nostrils like trumpets and his eyes like lamps ¶ and so begins the story of the fisherman and the genie which takes many twists and turns along the way with altogether surprising results and just what are they you ask and what of the other stories you ask well you ll just have to download and read the full story to find out what they re about and how they relate to the story of the fisherman ÿ 33 of the profit from the sale of this book will be donated to charities ÿ includes links to download 8 free stories ÿ each issue also has a where in the world look it up section where young readers are challenged to look up a place on a map somewhere in the world the place town or city is relevant to the story hint use google maps ÿ baba indaba is a fictitious zulu storyteller who narrates children s stories from around the world baba indaba translates as father of stories ÿ
