in this extraordinary work donald j wilcox seeks to discover an approach to narrative and history consistent with the discontinuous relative time of the twentieth century he shows how our b c a d system intimately connected to newtonian concepts of continuous objective and absolute time has affected our conception and experience of the past he demonstrates absolute time s centrality to modern historical methodologies and the problems it has created in the selection and interpretation of facts inspired by contemporary fiction and einsteinian concepts of relativity he concludes his analysis with a comparison of our system with earlier pre newtonian time schemes to create a radical new critique of historical objectivity

i will be sanctified in them that come nigh me leviticus 10 3 is your worship pleasing to god in this piercing and pastoral series of sermons the beloved puritan preacher jeremiah burroughs calls believers to a reverent scripture based approach to worship originally delivered during the 1600s preserved from his pulpit notes and now in updated modern english gospel worship is a sobering reminder that drawing near to god is no frivolous matter how we worship reveals what we believe about the god we worship with careful exposition of leviticus 10 3 burroughs shows that worship must be governed by god s word not our inventions he exposes the subtle dangers of strange fire introducing into worship what god has not commanded and pleads with readers to truly reverence the lord in the ordinances in prayer in hearing the word and in the lord s supper profound practical and deeply convicting gospel worship is both a theological treatise and a devotional aid meant to reform our worship and rekindle our reverence for our awesome and powerful god
