the idea of this women s magazine originated with samuel williams a cincinnati methodist who thought that christian women needed a magazine less worldly than goodey s lady s book and snowden s lady s companion written largely by ministers this exceptionally well printed little magazine contained well written essays of a moral character plenty of poetry articles on historical and scientific matters and book reviews among western writers were alice cary who contributed over a hundred sketches and poems her sister phoebe cary otway curry moncure d conway and joshua r giddings and new england contributors included mrs lydia sigourney hannah f gould and julia c r dorr by 1851 each issue published a peice of music and two steel plates usually landscapes or portraits when davis e clark took over the editorship in 1853 the magazine became brighter and attained a circulation of 40 000 unlike his predecessors clark included fictional pieces and made the repository a magazine for the whole family

after the war it began to decline and in 1876 was replaced by the national repository the ladies repository was an excellent representative of the methodist mind and heart its essays sketches and poems its good steel engravings and its moral tone gave it a charm all its own cf american periodicals 1741 1900
